

ABOUT THE SCHOOL

Seton Catholic is a private, co-ed day school in New York. Seton Catholic's rigorous high school curriculum hones the skills and discipline necessary to succeed in college and in life. Nestled between the Adirondack Mountains of New York and Green Mountains of Vermont, right next to beautiful Lake Champlain, international students get the chance to explore the unique nature and makeup of our area. From skiing in the winter to riding the ferry in the summer, we encourage our international students to seize every opportunity they have.

FACILITIES

The school has recently added a modern gymnasium and cafeteria for all students. Each classroom is also equipped with individual computers and smart boards are available in most of the rooms.
